

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

Connected into a wavelength division multiplex ring network is a filter arrangement which has a low attenuation only for the individual useful signals of the wavelength division multiplex signal and recombines these, along with launched 5 signals to form a wavelength division multiplex signal.